Academic Attire

At today's commencement, faculty and graduates will be attired in academic regalia gowns, hoods, and mortarboards.

The history of this distinctive costuming goes back to the medieval universities of Europe where gowns were worn every day, providing both identification of the academic discipline and added warmth in poorly heated buildings.

The formal attire for campuses in the United States was established in 1895 with the adoption of the Academic Costume Code. It enables one to identify the wearer's degree and course of study and, in many cases, the college or university that awarded the degree.

Gowns for recipients of bachelor's and master's degrees are made of black cotton without trimming. Doctoral gowns are faced down the front and back in velvet and have three bars of the same material across the sleeves. The bachelor's gown has open sleeves; the master's sleeves are longer and closed with arm slits at the elbow; and the doctoral bell-shaped sleeves extend to the wrist.

Hoods differ in length and are incrementally longer for each higher degree. The colored edging indicates the academic discipline and the lining signifies the official color or colors of the institution.

The black mortarboard with tassel is worn with each type of gown. Bachelor's and master's degree holders wear a black tassel and those who have earned a doctorate wear a gold tassel. In recent years, there has been a growing tendency to wear a colored tassel symbolizing, like the hood, the subject area in which the wearer has taken a degree.

Today, as in most academic processions, some people wear costumes that do not conform to standard patterns. This is especially true of people who hold degrees from foreign universities where colorful attire often is prescribed.

The Mace

The College Mace serves as a symbol of authority, just as it did in the Middle Ages when a mace bearer accompanied an official taking office or opening court. From the 16th century in England, and since colonial days in the United States, it has become a symbol of office used in ceremonies and is carried by the procession leader or macebearer. The Springfield College Mace was first used at the inauguration of Dr. Randolph W. Bromery, 11th president of Springfield College, on October 30, 1993, and was carried by Professor Frank Wolcott '52, grand marshal. It is traditionally carried at commencement in the spring and the convocation in the fall.

The Grand Marshal

Traditionally, the Grand Marshal carries the Mace, which bears the College seal. It is the responsibility of the Grand Marshal to lead the Academic Procession and serve as the representative of the faculty, which attests that students are, or will be, qualified to receive a Springfield College degree or certificate. Once the President announces that the degree has been conferred, the Grand Marshal raises and lowers the College Mace as a symbol that the Board of Trustees approves the conferral of these degrees.

Mary-Beth A. Cooper

Springfield College President

Mary-Beth A. Cooper, PhD, DM, became the 13th President of Springfield College in August 2013, bringing to the College her experience from a long and distinguished career in higher education administration and community service.

With her leadership, the Springfield College community has experienced a unified rededication to its Humanics philosophy and mission of leadership in service to others. She has continued her commitment to educational excellence by cultivating partnerships that allow students to produce new knowledge and engage diverse populations. Through collaboration and engagement, she fosters an internal environment that reflects shared governance among faculty, staff, and students, and an external environment that is safe and welcoming for the College community and its city neighbors.

During her tenure, she has successfully completed the largest capital campaign in the College's history, raising over $50 million. The Brown Cooper Health Sciences Center opened in fall 2024. The 76,000-square-foot facility created an interdisciplinary space for cutting-edge teaching and learning for students and faculty. She followed a similar process to create the innovative Harold C. Smith Learning Commons, bringing faculty excellence, technology, and library services into a dynamic hub for research and collaboration. Her commitment to inclusivity and accessibility was demonstrated through the partnership with the Cal Ripken, Sr. Foundation to create an intercollegiate adaptive baseball field to benefit athletes of all abilities and contained within our championship-quality intercollegiate baseball field.

Known for her volunteer leadership, President Cooper serves on the board of directors of the Association of Independent Colleges and Universities in Massachusetts and is chair of the board of directors for Educare Springfield. She was the vice chair of the NCAA Board of Governors, served on the NCAA President's Council, and provided board-level leadership as the past chair of the New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference. In addition, she has served on the boards of the Council of Independent Colleges, the Community Foundation of Western Massachusetts, the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame, and the Cal Ripken, Sr. Foundation.

President Cooper's academic journey is marked by a commitment to lifelong learning. She holds a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Delaware, a Master of Education from the University of Georgia, a Master of Business Administration from the University of Rochester, a Doctor of Philosophy in Education Administration from Michigan State University, and a Doctor of Management from Case Western Reserve University.

President Cooper lives on the Springfield College campus with her husband, Dave, and their chocolate lab, Jack. Their son, Calvin, serves as a Captain in the U.S. Air Force Services, embodying the Coopers' shared values of service and dedication to community and country.

Moffat's industry accomplishments have been recognized with honors such as the TARA Award for Sales Woman of Achievement and the Women of Achievement Award from the Atlanta YWCA.

Equally active in civic life, she contributes to organizations, including the Martha's Vineyard Museum, NAACP, and the National Senior Games Association. From corporate boardrooms to community service, Moffat exemplifies leadership, service, and impact.

A Song for Springfield

*Now raise a song for Springfield,
Let hearts and voices blend
To celebrate her praises,
Whose fame shall have no end;
While fellowship makes holy,
While eager hope elates,
And visioned youth come thronging
Her spacious gates.*

*Earthwide may happy childhood
Lift high its wond'ring eyes,
Strong youth bring back the vision
Of earthly paradise;
To follow truth to wisdom,
Nor faint thro' falt'ring fears,
Be this thy task, O Springfield,
Thro' all the years.*
