

SPRINGFIELD COLLEGE

Springfield College CONNECT

News and Happenings from Alden Street

Volume 1, Issue 3 • June 23, 2020

This newsletter serves as a communication tool for our students, their families, and our campus community to stay informed. This is an important information platform for Springfield College to periodically share and exchange plans so that, together, we emerge strongly from the COVID-19 crisis.

Important Update on Plans for the Fall Semester

President Mary-Beth A. Cooper has an update on plans for in-person learning in the fall.

We encourage you to watch her video message as she talks about important dates regarding our full 15-week semester, improvements being made for certain campus experiences, and changes on campus to help ensure the health and safety of everyone. We look forward to seeing you this fall.

Harvest Table Preparing for Exciting Culinary Experience This Fall

Your new hospitality provider, Harvest Table Culinary Group, has been hard at work this summer creating an exciting, new dining experience on campus. Your fall dining program will include chef-curated menus with responsibly sourced ingredients, reimagined stations at the Table @ Cheney Hall (formerly Cheney Dining Services), new local partners, and fun pop-ups and special events all semester long. Take a sneak peek of what you can expect from Harvest Table. Students at High Point University share their experiences with Harvest Table dining on their campus.

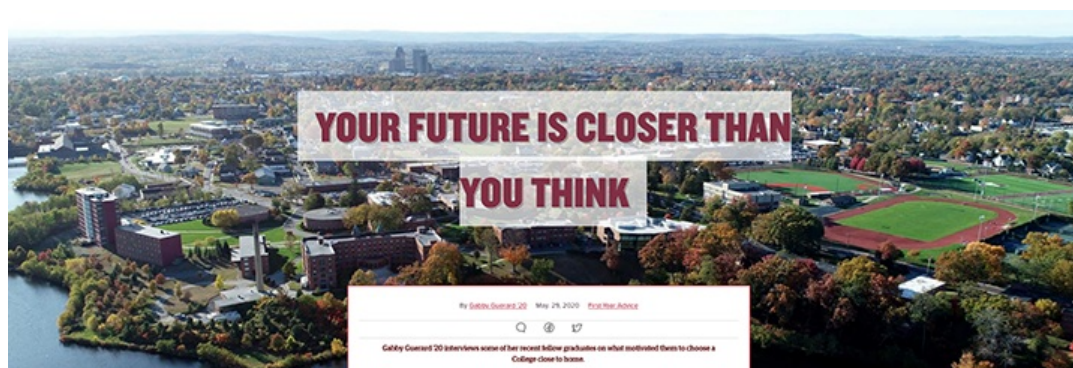

Follow us on social media for updates on the fall program.

When Your Future is Closer Than You Think

Gabby Guerard '20, a communications/sports journalism major, interviewed 2020 Springfield College graduates Katie Evans, Matt DeGrandpre, and Angelica Core to get their perspectives about what motivated them to choose a college close to home. Read Gabby's blog about her interviews and check out videos from Katie, Matt, and Angelica talking to Gabby about what it means to earn your degree near where you live.

Five Alumni Honored as BusinessWest 40 Under Forty Class of 2020

We know how special our alumni are when they go out and make a difference in the world. But we love it when others not affiliated with Springfield College acknowledge their successes. We congratulate our five alumni who were honored recently as members of the BusinessWest 40 Under Forty Class of 2020.

- Kristina (Dupuis) Healey '13, Patient Experience Manager, Baystate Health, Springfield, Mass. Read her Q&A with BusinessWest.
