

Aggregate Verification Worksheet (V5) 2021-2022

Office of Financial Aid

Your 2021-2022 FAFSA was selected for a review process known as verification. This means that you are now required to complete and return this worksheet to Springfield College Office of Financial Aid. We will compare your FAFSA data with the information provided on this worksheet. If there are differences we will update your FAFSA, and if necessary, recalculate your eligibility for federal and institutional aid. If you have any questions, please contact us at 413.748.3108 or for ROCE students: 413.748.3112 or via email @ financialaid@springfieldcollege.edu.

SECTION C: Verification of 2019 Income

If you are single and a dependent student we will need to verify your and your parents' 2019 income (the parents are those who are listed on your FAFSA). If you are married, we need to verify your and your spouse's 2019 income. If you are single and an independent student we will need to verify your 2019 income. We CANNOT accept a copy of an actual tax return to verify income. Income may be verified by one of the methods listed below. Please review each of these methods to see if they apply to you, your parents', and/or your spouse:

1. If your parents filed a 2019 IRS income tax return, the best way to verify income is to request it through the data retrieval tool (DRT) on your 2021-20 FAFSA. Or you may need to request the IRS tax transcript by visiting their website (www.irs.gov). You will then need to upload the transcript to Springfield College on My Financial Aid.
 - 1A: Parent(s) filed a 2019 IRS income tax return and will request a Tax Return Transcript to verify 2019 income.
 - 1B: Parent(s) was not employed and had no income from work in 2019 and was not required to file a 2019 IRS income tax return.*
 - 1C: Parent(s) filed a 2019 IRS income tax return and used the Data Retrieval Tool (DRT) on the FAFSA.
 - 1D: Parent(S) were employed in 2019 and had earnings from work but were not required to file a 2019 IRS tax return. If checked, please complete the non-tax filing statement below and attach all W-2's.

2. If you or your spouse filed a 2019 IRS income tax return, the best way to verify income is to request it through the data retrieval tool (DRT) on your 2021-22 FAFSA. Or you may need to request the IRS tax transcript by visiting their website (www.irs.gov). You will then need to upload the transcript to Springfield College on My Financial Aid.
 - 2A: Student or spouse filed a 2018 IRS income tax return and will request a Tax Return Transcript to verify 2019 income.
 - 2B: Student and spouse was not employed and had no income from work in 2019 and was not required to file a 2019 IRS income tax return.
 - 2C: Student filed a 2019 IRS income tax return and used the Data Retrieval Tool (DRT) on the FAFSA.
 - 2D: Student or spouse, were employed in 2019 and had earnings from work but were not required to file a 2019 IRS tax return. If checked, please complete the non-tax filing statement below and attach all W-2's.

Independent students or parents of dependent students who did not file (and were not required to file) a 2018 IRS income tax return will also need to provide documentation from the IRS that a return was not filed. You can obtain this by filing IRS form 4506-T and checking box #7 or requesting a 2019 Tax Transcript or a 2019 Tax Account Transcript that includes a message such as "no records of a return filed" or "no transcript on file".

NON-TAX FILING STATEMENT – to be completed only if the box to Question 1D/2D in Section C above is checked

SECTION E: High School Completion Status

Provide one of the following documents to indicate the student's high school completion status when the student begins college in 2021–2022:

- A copy of the student's high school diploma.
- For students who completed secondary education in a foreign country, a copy of the "secondary school leaving certificate" or another similar document.
- A copy of the student's final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
- A State certificate or transcript received by a student after the student passed a State authorized examination that the State recognizes as the equivalent of a high school diploma (GED test, HiSET, TASC, or other State-authorized examination).
- An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree.
- For a student who was homeschooled in a State where State law requires the student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschooling (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.
- For a student who was homeschooled in a State where State law does not require the student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschooling (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript, or the equivalent, signed by the student's parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and includes a statement that the student successfully completed a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.

A student who is unable to obtain the documentation listed above must contact the financial aid office.

Check here if you provided the Office of Admissions with one of the documents listed above. Please circle the bullet in the list above which corresponds to the specific document. We will verify that they have the document and if the Office of Admissions has it you will not need to send another copy to the Office of Financial Aid.
